

DOING RESEARCH ON ORGANISED CRIME: METHODOLOGICAL STRATEGIES

23 OCTOBER 2024

NAGOYA UNIVERSITY ASIAN LEGAL EXCHANGE PLAZA
CONFERENCE ROOM, ROOM 221

SESSION 1

10:30-
12:00

METHODOLOGY:
USING TRIAL
DOCUMENTS

Niles Breuer

University of Oxford

Mapping Drug Smuggling
Networks in Japan: A Social Network Analysis of Trial
Documents

Dr Zora Hauser

University of Oxford

On Trial: Risks and Opportunities of Understanding Organised
Crime through Court
Documents

Dr Qiaoyu Luo

University of Oxford

Doing Research with Judgment Data: Objectives,
Coding Strategies and Potential Pitfalls

SESSION 2

13:00-
14:30

CRIMINOLOGY: ORGANISED CRIME
IN THE UK, ITALY
& JAPAN

Shane Roberts

Keele University

Clear-Hold-Build: A new partnership approach to tackle serious and organised crime within communities

Prof Francesco Calderoni

Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Milan

The Presence of Italian
Mafias in the World 2000-2020: Countries and Activities and Change

Dr Andrea Giovannetti

Australian Catholic University

Trust Thy Neighbour: The Effect of Yakuza Offices in the Neighbourhood

SESSION 3

14:45-
16:15

METHODOLOGY: QUALITATIVE INTERVIEWS

Dr Emilia Ziosi

University of Oxford

Navigating Online
Interviews: Challenges,
Benefits and Best Practices

Jack Warburton

University of Oxford

Organised Crime in an English Market Town: The Case of Clear, Hold, and Build in Buxton, Derbyshire

Dr Martina Baradel

University of Oxford

Trust Issues: Doing
Fieldwork with Active
Members of Organised Crime